

SWEDEN VISA REQUIREMENT

A complete and signed application form no. 119031. Application for Schengen visa (Swedish & English).

Form no. 239011 Family details (Swedish & English)

A receipt confirming payment of the application fee. If you have not applied online. A passport or some other travel document.

This must:

- be valid for at least three months after your departure from the Schengen area
- contain at least two empty pages
- have been issued during the past ten years.

Two photographs in 35mm x 45mm white background, taken straight from the front and no older than six months.

Individual medical insurance covers the cost of emergency treatment and transport home for medical reasons.

Enough money to support yourself during your stay. In general, Sweden requires you to have SEK 450 per day/person. The required amount may be less if for instance you have paid for board and lodging in advance or live with friends or relatives. The embassy requires proof that you can support yourself, e.g., in the form of a statement of document from your bank or a wage specification for the past six months. If the person who is inviting you to Sweden will be paying for your support, you must show in the same way that he/she has enough money to do so.

Enough money for the return journey or a return ticket.

Certificate from your employer if you work. Certificate from your university or school, if you are a student.

A detailed travel plan.

A copy of your hotel and air ticket booking (we advise you not to pay for hotel accommodation or air tickets before your visa has been granted)
